

Ealing Learning Partnership's impact is recognised

19 Jun 2024

We are delighted to announce that Ealing Learning Partnership has been recognised with a Silver Award for Impact through Partnership in the Pearson National Teaching Awards.

Selected from thousands of nominees, the win highlights the remarkable impact our partnership has had on shaping the lives of the young people in our care.

Our collaboration unites school and council staff across the borough in our mission to drive educational excellence, tackle inequalities and deliver better outcomes for all children and young people in pursuit of its vision: No learner left behind: no school left behind. More than 40 school leaders contribute their time to shape and deliver activity on behalf of all young learners in the borough, area-wide priorities and schools' needs.

The Pearson Silver award recognises Ealing Learning Partnership as one of the leaders in educational excellence in the UK.

Conviction and dedication

Julie Lewis, director of Learning Standards and School Partnerships at Ealing Council, said:

"It is the conviction of our schools and the dedication of individual leaders who contribute directly to Ealing Learning Partnership's aims, and who believe in our mission, that has resulted in this award. This supportive network of brilliant educators do not just care about the performance of their own school or the outcomes of the pupils they teach; they care about all of Ealing's children and young people. I am delighted that we have achieved this recognition".
