Planned improvements:

We reflect on what you tell us, to make improvements.

We now offer schools more flexible ways of working with our team. For example, schools can now choose to have either a virtual or face-to-face Health in Schools visit and we are now offering a mix of virtual and face-to-face training workshops and networks. This is in response to over 80% of schools who told us in our annual survey that they would prefer a mix of virtual and face-to-face going forward.

Also, we now offer videos of our assemblies and virtual parent workshops as an alternative for increased flexibility.
