Gunnersbury Park and Museum

Gunnersbury Park and Museum are on the look out for young curators!

If you know a young person aged 14-21 who is interested in knowing how exhibitions are put together and would like to be part of co-curating their own this is the project for you.

There will be an information session to find out more on Friday 27 October 2pm - 4pm.

For more information email: learning@visitgunnersbury.org

Caribbean Connections: Windrush 75 Celebrations

Join Action for Race Equality and Descendants Youth in October half term for a fun, family-friendly celebration of the Windrush Generation!

This Black History Month, come together for a family and youth focussed event which celebrates the stories of the Windrush Generation, as well as the work of young people who have been learning about their routes and roots in the Caribbean!

We're delighted to be hosting this FREE community event in a year that marks the 75th anniversary of the arrival of HMT Empire Windrush at Tilbury Docks in Essex - a key moment in post-war Commonwealth migration to the UK.

DID YOU KNOW?

Horsenden Hill has a Gruffalo trail? See if you can find Mouse, Fox, Snake, Owl and the Gruffalo himself! The trail is open all year round, but can be muddy in winter/wet months, so wear wellies or boots, and be careful with prams and buggies.

This is the only FREE Gruffalo trail in London.

Address: Horsenden Lane North, Perivale, Horsenden, Greenford UB6 7QH

If visiting the Gruffalo trail on Friday, Saturday or Sunday, the Horsenden Loaf runs a café and bakery
