

SEN travel assistance session

Monday 22nd April 11am-1pm

This online workshop by Ealing SENDIASS and Contact Ealing is to help families understand applying for travel assistance and application process.

We will be joined by Ealing Council representatives who will explain the policy and you will have an opportunity to ask questions. The travel training team will let parents know how they support young people to travel independently.

The session will cover:

How to apply for travel assistance and advice for completing the form

The different types of travel assistance options

Eligibility and Ealing council's travel policy
