

CODE OF CONDUCT ON THE PROVISIONS FOR FIXED PENALTY NOTICES

Reviewed July 2024

Local code of conduct for issuing penalty notices for school absence 2024

1. The purpose of this local code of conduct is to ensure that penalty notices for school absence are issued in a manner that is fair and consistent across the London Borough of Ealing. The code sets out the arrangements for administering penalty notices in Ealing and must be adhered to by anyone issuing a penalty notice for school absence in this area. The code complies with relevant regulations and the Department for Education's national framework for penalty notices as set out in the 'Working together to improve school attendance' guidance.

Consultation

2. This code has been drawn up in consultation with the headteachers and governing bodies of state-funded schools and the local police force.

Legal basis

3. Penalty notices may be issued to a parent as an alternative to prosecution for irregular school attendance under s444 of the Education Act 1996. They can only be issued in relation to pupils of compulsory school age in maintained schools, pupil referral units, academy schools, AP academies, and certain off-site places as set out in section 444A(1)(b).
4. The Education \(Penalty Notices\) \(England\) \(Amendment\) \(No. 2\) Regulations 2024 \(legislation.gov.uk\)
5. A penalty notice can only be issued by an authorised officer: that is, a headteacher or a deputy or assistant head authorised by them, an authorised local authority officer or a police constable.
6. The national framework for penalty notices is published in statutory guidance 'Working together to improve school attendance'. It provides further national guidance on the operation of penalty notice schemes for school absence in England.

7. A parent includes any person who is not a parent but who has parental responsibility for the child or who has care of the child, as set out in section 576 of the Education Act 1996. Penalty notices will usually be issued to the parent or parents with day to day responsibility for the pupil's attendance or the parent or parents who have allowed the absence (regardless of which parent has applied for a leave of absence).

Education Act 1996, Section 576

Rationale

8. Research published by the Department for Education in May 2022 found pupils with higher attainment at KS2 and KS4 had lower levels of absence over the key stage compared to those with lower attainment.
 - Pupils who did not achieve the expected standard in reading, writing and maths in 2019 had an overall absence rate of 4.7% over the key stage, compared with 3.5% among pupils who achieved the expected standard and 2.7% among those who achieved the higher standard.
 - Pupils who did not achieve grade 9 to 4 in English and maths GCSEs in 2019 had an overall absence rate of 8.8% over the key stage, compared with 5.2% among pupils who achieved a grade 4 and 3.7% among pupils who achieved grade 9 to 5 in both English and maths.
9. For the most vulnerable pupils, regular attendance is also an important protective factor and often the best opportunity for needs to be identified and support provided.
10. Where difficulties arise with school attendance, professionals should take a 'support first' approach in line with the DfE's 'Working together to improve school attendance' guidance, only resorting to legal enforcement when necessary. The aim is that the need for legal enforcement is reduced by taking a supportive approach to tackle the barriers to attendance and intervening early before absence becomes entrenched.
11. The national framework for penalty notices is based on the principles that penalty notices should only be used in cases where:
 - support is not appropriate (e.g. a term time holiday) or where support has been provided and not engaged with or not worked, and
 - they are the most appropriate tool to change parental behaviour and improve attendance for that particular family.

When may a penalty notice for absence be appropriate?

12. When the national threshold has been met: when a school becomes aware that the national threshold has been met, they must consider whether a penalty notice can and should be issued or not. The national threshold has been met when a pupil has been recorded as absent for 10 sessions (usually equivalent to 5 school days) within 10 school weeks¹, with one of, or a combination of the following codes:
 - (a) code G (the pupil is absent without leave for the purpose of a holiday),
 - (b) code N (the circumstances of the pupil's absence have not yet been established),
 - (c) code O (none of the other rows of Table 3 in regulation 10(3) of the School Attendance (Pupil Registration) (England) Regulations 2024 applies), and
 - (d) code U (the pupil attended after the taking of the register ended but before the end of the session, where no other code applies)
13. During or following a truancy sweep: the Local Authority or police can issue a penalty notice.
14. If in an individual case the local authority believes a penalty notice would be appropriate, they retain the discretion to issue one before the threshold is met.
15. If repeated penalty notices are being issued and they are not working to change behaviour they are unlikely to be most appropriate tool. The national framework for penalty notices sets out that a maximum of 2 penalty notices per child, per parent can be issued within a rolling 3-year period. If the national threshold is met for a third time (or subsequent times) within 3 years, another tool should be used. This might include prosecution or one of the other attendance legal interventions available to the Local Authority.
16. For the purpose of the escalation process, previous penalty notices include those not paid (including where prosecution was taken forward if the parent pleaded or was found guilty) but not those which were withdrawn.

Key considerations prior to the issue of a Penalty Notice for school absence

¹ A school week means any week (Monday to Sunday) in which there is at least one school session. The 10 school-week period when the national threshold applies may span different terms or school years (e.g. 2 sessions of unauthorised absence in the Summer Term and a further 8 within the Autumn Term).

17. The following considerations will be made before issuing (or requesting that another authorised officer issues) a penalty notice to ensure consistency of approach:

- In cases where support is not appropriate (for example, for holidays in term time), consider on a case by case basis:
 - Is a penalty notice the best available tool to improve attendance and change parental behaviour for this particular family or would one of the other legal interventions be more appropriate?
 - Is issuing a penalty notice in this case appropriate after considering any obligations under the Equality Act 2010

Equality Act 2010: guidance

- (For local authorities only) Is it in the public interest to issue a penalty notice in this case given the local authority would be accepting responsibility for any resulting prosecution for the original offence in cases of non-payment?
- If the answer to the above questions is 'yes', then a penalty notice (or a notice to improve in cases where support is appropriate) will usually be issued.
- In cases where support is appropriate (support is not usually appropriate for absences coded as G), consider on a case-by-case basis:

For requests from schools for unagreed Holiday taken (solely G code) these will be made via Gateway/unauthorised holiday and the relevant attendance grid showing the G codes and correct parental contact details should be attached to the request. These will be issued where there are a minimum of 10 sessions over a 10-week period.

For requests from schools for variable absence codes (G, O, and U) these should be made via Gateway/Attendance and the LA link officer will contact the referrer to establish what support has been offered and to agree jointly on appropriate action, whether a Fixed Penalty notice is the best available tool. Please be aware that N codes should be cleared, and the most appropriate absence code applied.

Has sufficient support already been provided? Sufficient support will usually include:

- the school's own internal pastoral support has been offered
- consideration of SEN and any medical needs
- reasonable adjustments where appropriate
- early help (EHAP) including the offer of parenting classes where appropriate.
- referral to social care/SAFE as appropriate
- attendance contract
- attendance support meeting/s
- opportunity given for the parent/s to provide evidence of a request for exceptional leave
- the school's usual escalation process including a) daily logged calls b) an attendance overview letter and c) discussion with the Local Authority Link Officer and or d) an attendance referral to the local authority as necessary
- The Local Authority will also apply where necessary their usual escalation processes and interventions

Where a child has an EHCP, schools should consider calling an emergency annual review.

Notice to improve

18. A notice to improve is a final opportunity for a parent to engage in support and improve attendance before a penalty notice is issued. If the national threshold has been met and support is appropriate but offers of support have not been engaged with by the parent or have not worked, a notice to improve should usually be sent to give parents a final chance to engage in support. An authorised officer can choose not to use one in any case, including cases where support is appropriate, but they do not expect a notice to improve would have any impact on a parent's behaviour (e.g. because the parent has already received one for a similar offence).

A single consistent national threshold for when a penalty notice must be considered of 10 sessions (usually equivalent to 5 school days) of unauthorised absence within a rolling 10 school week period.

- The LA will issue 'Notice to Improve' letters
- There will be a flexible period of improvement set between 3 and 6 weeks, so that it can be varied in individual cases
- Within the period of improvement monitoring there should be no further unauthorised absences and full engagement by the parent/s with any services, support and advice offered from the school and the Local Authority.
- The Local Authority Attendance Officer will monitor the attendance data at regular intervals. Following the period of improvement, the officer will contact the school to agree or not that a penalty notice should be issued/that to do so is in the public interest. If there have been further unauthorised absences and or if the parent/s have not engaged with services and any support offered, then a penalty notice will usually be issued.

19. The Local Authority (and the Police on occasion) will work together to ensure that penalty notices are used when likely to be effective and change behaviour.

20. An authorised officer is a headteacher or someone authorised by them (a deputy or assistant head), a local authority officer or the police. Ealing Local Authority School Attendance Service will ordinarily issue the penalty notices

21. Where the school request that the LA issues the penalty notice, they need to:

Schools should request penalty notices via Gateway. For solely G coded requests (unagreed term time leave), these should be made through Gateway/unauthorised holiday. When uploading the request, schools should attach the attendance certificate showing the parent/s correct contact details. Notices will be processed within a 4-week period of receipt of the referral.

For requests for variable absence codes (G, O, and U) these should be made via Gateway/attendance and the Local Authority link officer will contact the referrer to agree jointly on appropriate action dependent on whether sufficient support has been offered to the parent/s and whether a Fixed Penalty notice is the best available tool. Where there is dispute, the local authority's judgement about whether sufficient support has been provided before issuing a penalty notice will be final.

22. The Local Authority will inform the school about whether penalty notices are paid, withdrawn or prosecuted for non-payment. Schools will receive a termly report on fines paid/not paid, withdrawn or prosecuted

23. Where pupils move between local authority areas, Ealing can be contacted on crossborder.penaltynotice@ealing.gov.uk to find out if penalty notices have been issued previously.

24. Where pupils attend school in Ealing but live in a different Local Authority, Ealing will issue the penalty notice. Schools will provide evidence of support offered by the school and any wider services where the child is living, such as social care or health services. Where fines are not paid and further legal action is being considered, Ealing will liaise by email with the attendance team in the borough in which the child lives.
